Identification of Untouchability-Prone Areas

4916. SHRI RAMACHANDRA KHUNTIA: Will the Minister of SOCIAL JUSTICE AND EMPOWERMENT be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that only three States have identified untouchability-prone areas;

(b) if so, the reasons for slow pace of identification of untouchability-prone areas in the country;

(c) whether all the States/UTs have set-up Special Courts to inquire into the cases of untouchability;

(d) if so, the details thereof; and

(e) if not, the States where such courts are yet to be set-up alongwith the reasons therefor?

THE MINISTER OF SOCIAL JUSTICE AND EMPOWERMENT (DR. SATYA NARAYAN JATIYA): (a) and (b) The States of Andhra Pradesh and Maharashtra have identified untouchability-prone areas. Surveys are in progress in Karnataka and Madhya Pradesh.

(c) to (e) Twenty-two Special Mobile Courts in Andhra Pradesh and four exclusive special courts in Tamil Nadu have been set up. In Karnataka, all Judicial Magistrate First Class Courts at Taluk Head Quarters undertake trail of cases under the Protection of Civil Rights Act, 1955 and in Madhya Pradesh; the cases are attend to by the District Courts.

Pathetic condition of children in Juvenile Homes

†4917. DR. A.K. PATEL: Will the Minister of SOCIAL JUSTICE AND EMPOWERMENT be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that the condition of children in Juvenile Homes set-up by Government is very pitiable;

(b) whether it is also a fact that the behaviour of officers towards the children of these Homes is very harsh and cruel in Delhi;

(c) if so, the details thereof; and

(d) the efforts being made by Government to improve the condition of these Homes?

THE MINISTER OF SOCIAL JUSTICE AND EMPOWERMENT (DR. SATYA NARAYAN JATIYA): (a) to (d) According to report received from the Government of NCT of Delhi, it is not correct that the condition of children in Juvenile homes is pitiable and the behaviour of officers towards the children of these Homes is very harsh and cruel. The Department run homes are providing boarding, lodging, recreation, medical facilities, education, vocational training to the juveniles.
